Then she subleased one-third of her 2,500-square-foot storefront to Joan Valier-Davis, owner of Herbal Advantage, which provides homeopathic supplements and counseling services.

For example, an individual without the intent to possess, sell, or traffic drugs is not guilty of these offenses.