So can birth control pills if the woman forgets to take them every day or can't afford a refill.

Can help calm stress and headaches, especially when applied to the neck and forehead.

You certainly know how to bring a problem to light and make it important.